Are there any additional penalties for players who are sent off (red card) or coaches or spectators who are asked to leave the vicinity of the field because of misconduct?

A mandatory additional one game suspension is required for any player, substitute or substituted player sent off (red card). The governing body of the competition may impose additional disciplinary action against any person (including coaches and spectators) guilty of misconduct.

The referee is required to:

"provide the appropriate authorities with a match report, which includes information on any disciplinary action taken against players, and/or team officials and any other incidents that occurred before, during or after the match".

It is the governing body's responsibility to review the referee's match report and to take whatever additional action they feel appropriate.
